LONG SHOTS AT HAWTHORNE.

To such followers of racing as fancy large fields of horses, Hawthorne yesterday presented the desired card, as of sixty-three entries in the six races, only eight were scratched. Among the absentees was the two-year-old filly, Lucille Bramble, entered in the name of John Brenock. Swordsman, entered by W. A. McConnell, was scratched by order of the judges. The day was warm and beautiful, the track fair, through the drying influences of wind and sun. The same sixteen regular and two field bookmakers supplied the wants of the public.

Marcus Cartwright was the bold merchant to start the ball on Agnes C. Ed Corrigan's filly, in the first race, and like bass at grasshoppers snapped the speculators at the 3 to 1 straight and 4 to 5 place offered. The backers of the "green and white sash" argued: "The master of Hawthorne has had a little spare time since the day he squelched the raiders, and no doubt he has been around mornins putting the final 'prep.' on his horses that during the first part of the meeting all stopped in the stretch," but the doughty ex-butcher of Nashville kept up the price a long time, saying to himself: "My theory is that the game is as hard as the players."

Agnes C. went to the post at 2 to 1, got off well and, taking the lead, was done soon after reaching the home stretch and finished nowhere. The winner turned up in Black Fonso, ridden by Jenkins. He ran second until Agnes C. quit, then went on and was never headed, although La Champagne ran him close to the last few strides. Cutter, from fifth position on the upper turn, took the outside coming home and, "running over horses" at the finish, would have won the race if the distance had been farther. As it was, he beat La Champagne for place. Bethlehem Star ran a fair race and Fremont a much better one. The last named horse was practically left at the post.

The bookmakers were again made happy in the second race through the victory of Astor, a horse well backed, however, by the small bettors and knocked in price from 30 down to 15 to 1. J. Reiff was up, and getting off in the front division Astor was second to Branch into the straight and well handled won with something left. Branch was driving to beat Star and Crescent when Astor passed him on the outside. Ironical and Hosi showed first away from the post but the former dropped out of the race at the first half while Hosi, rating along all the way, beat Star and Crescent for the third money. Peg Parks was well up.

The favorite players got the money on Pat Dunne's Official, but it is questionable whether or not Locust Blossom, who finished third, would have been first past the post with a better ride. Thorpe has a fashion of stealing up on Mr. Caldwell, so he got George Lee off in front, Official being second and Sybaris third. Julia Hazel, fourth away, at once took command and at the far turn, George Lee having dropped away back, she was leading with Official second. In fifth position, but close up, ran Locust Blossom, now turned loose, so that into the home stretch she was leading from Julia Hazel, Official lying third. Rutter took it easy on Locust Blossom as soon as he had Julia Hazel beaten and then when the favorite came on at the last sixteenth, he could not get Cleveland's filly going again and so Official won handily, while Prince Blazes coming from behind got the place. Julia Hazel finished close up. Nannie Davis showed speed up the back stretch.

The large crowd had got warmed up by the time of the fourth race, for which started the best class performers of the day. There was a plunge on Formero which sent his price from 6 down to 3 to 1, but it backed up to 4 to 1 at the post. Formero jumped away in the lead but was quickly outrun, first by Hardy Pardee, then by Jinks and Boney Boy. At the finish he was passed by Jolly Roger, landing in fifth position ten lengths behind the winner. Once straightened out Jinks soon had Hardy Pardee safe, and the latter as easily ran on in front of Boney Boy. So they finished without any semblance of a contest, lengths separating each of the first five.

W. K. Cleveland, much disgusted with the Locust Blossom ride, still had heart to bet on his filly, Amy Wade, and told his friends to do likewise, as the filly was good. He was rewarded by seeing her first past the judges from Braw Lad, the favorite. The latter led until well into the last quarter. Jenkins riding Amy Wade with rare judgment for a supposed stable boy, keeping her together for the finish, then utilizing her turn of speed and landing his mount first where the money is hung up. Can't Dance was second away but soon fell out of the race. Tranby then took third position but Prosecutor came within half a length of beating him for the third money. Thorpe and Con Reagan were caught in the netting, so they might as well have been left at the post. It showed where Thorpe always is, or tries to be—with his horse moving and the run nicely timed so as to miss getting caught.

Pitfall and Treeby made the running in the closing race, the former retaining the lead to the last quarter, where Millie M. took command, closely followed by Tonto. The pair drove home the last eighth and Tonto, lasting the longest, won. Queen Safie was many lengths behind at the turn for home, but she beat Winslow for third money, although finishing many lengths behind Millie M. Winslow was interfered with on the upper turn. Treeby died off at five-eighths and King Dance, third at the quarter, quit before she did. Unity never had a chance, simply because he had no speed.

M. P. Mattingly, the Kentuckian, so well known years ago in Chicago as the owner of the first-class racehorse Lorenzo, has signified his intention of racing here this fall. He is now at St. Louis, as also his nephew George D. of Sunshine Whisky fame.

The Stanton-Tucker sale of horses announced for today is off. The senior partner of the racing firm arrived from Mobile, Ala., yesterday morning, and after a consultation with Mr. Tucker it was decided to go on racing the horses.

Jockey W. Delong, who outlawed himself last winter, has applied for reinstatement. It is almost certain that it will be granted him, and Mr. Corrigan has given him the mount on Sam Tate in the jumping race today.

Edward Corrigan yesterday received a telegram from T. J. McHale, who is now at St. Louis, asking for six stalls. McHale's string includes Basquil, Johnny McHale and others.

Galen Brown ships to California next week. He has Olinthus engaged in stakes there, and is confident of winning his share.

Jockey Narvaez has been granted a license by the Turf Congress.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Many of the trainers who look for a field of twenty horses in the Futurity on Tuesday next are anxious that the starting machine shall not be used. James Rowe, who is handling The Lady in Blue, has prepared a protest. Other trainers say their protest must hold on the ground that the conditions of the Futurity race at the time of nominations did not include a starting machine, and that nominations were Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Rayon d'Or—Bliss. Start good. Won easily. Blissful outclassed her field in the going. She is a veritable mud-lark. High Priest ran a good race. Squan, from a bad beginning, closed strongly. Taranto is not worth consideration except on a fast track among the bad ones.

Scratched—Tinge, 115; Tanis, 112; Anson L, 108; Vanessa, 106; Octave, 97.

Overweights—High Priest, 1 pound.

High Priest, place, 3 to 5. Squan, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 12½, 24½, 50½, 1:03, 1:09½.

Winner—B. f. by Strathmore—La Juive. Start fair. Won easily. Tut Tut was best. She is of fair class and was well ridden. Kirkwood is best on a fast track and requires a strong jockey. He had but a poor chance with Moody who has much to learn, but has been lucky lately. Leando lost much ground from a slow beginning, but closed strong. He was overweighted. Ninety Cents ran a bad race, too bad to be true.

Scratched—Tophet, 100.

Tut Tut, place, 3 to 5. Kirkwood, place, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by St. George—Belle Loring. Start good. Won easily. Long Acre was lucky at the start and ran his race. Ruby Lips, after a brush with Frohman, stopped in the last quarter. Is best on fast track or in sloppy going. Frohman will wake up unexpectedly. Had little chance with his jockey. Hermann showed some speed.

Scratched—Pink Chambray, 107; Vigenta, 100.

Long Acre, place, 1 to 3.

Time, 26½, 51½, 1:03½, 1:17, 1:43½, 1:47.

Winner—Ch. g. 6, by Linden—Elkhorn Lass. Start good. Won driving. Lansdale is in great form and is best in mud. He was saved and lucky throughout. Ben Ronald was badly handled and should have won. Doggett favors a deeper and slower track. He was badly ridden, but closed strong. Brighton was overweighted and badly ridden, but showed a fine burst of speed and is about due. Ein wants a slow, heavy track.

Scratched—Taranto, 102.

Overweights—Lansdale, 3 pounds.

Lansdale, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Ben Ronald, place, 1 to 2.

Time, 13, 25½, 37½, 50½, 1:03½.

Winner—Ch. g. by Falconer—Maggie Ward. Start fair. Won driving. Conover had a winning ride and a sudden awakening. Tophet was possibly the best and liked the mud, but Maher outrode Moody. Heroics also suffered from inferior work in the saddle. Lady Bratton ran finely for a green one. Sensina had but little chance with her jockey. It was the same with Ben Lodi.

Scratched—Belle of Oakwood, 107; Effort, 104; Stain II, 101; Lioness, 106.

based upon the old system of starting. This is a very far-fetched and technical objection and is not likely to have any weight with the Coney Island Jockey Club stewards. The entire question is likely to be left in the hands of Starter Fitzgerald.—Exchange.

Racing at the Aqueduct track ends today and a very good thing it is that it does. It will be succeeded by the opening of the big meeting at Sheepshead Bay next Tuesday. The decision of the Futurity will mark the occasion. In popular estimation it will naturally be the star event of the day. The Autumn handicap, $5000, six furlongs, will also be run that day, and since Handsel, Don d'Oro, Typhoon II., Royal Stag, Isidor, Ogden, Swiftmas, Handball, Ornament, Bangle, White Frost, Briar Sweet, Hurly Burly, Maceo, St. Callatine, Geisha, Tillo, Pink Coat, Tragedian, Candleblack and Floronso are among the entries, it ought to prove decidedly a hot race itself. The Sheepshead Bay Autumn meeting is always about the best of the year in the east.

Winner—Blk. g. 3, by Fonso—Enquiry.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long hard drive of three. Cutter was far the best. He was extremely unlucky and met with interference at every turn. Turger got him through a tight place at the head of the stretch and came with a rush at the end. In another stride after passing the wire Cutter was a long neck in front. He lost simply through bad racing luck. Black Fonso was off well and always had a clear path. He was tiring badly though at the end. In the same grade of company La Champagne deserves notice from now on. She was bumped and interfered with often but notwithstanding this was dangerously close at the finish. Fremont, slow to break, made up ground throughout. Hammon showed quite a turn of speed. So did Agnes C. The latter is a pronounced quitter. She stopped all in a stride at the head of the stretch.

Scratched—Ocellan, 110.

Overweights—Agnes C., 3 pounds; Scornful, 4; Long Suit, 2.

Black Fonso, place, 6 to 1; Cutter, 2 to 1; Cutter, place, 2 to 5; La Champagne, show, 5 to 1.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Aintree—Stephanie. Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Astor won through sheer gameness. He stopped about the eighth pole and then came on again. Little Reiff was almost as tired as the horse. He sat still, though, and helped his mount all he could. Branch got away on his stride and was well ridden. Ellis drove Hosi hard all the way. This fellow has a slow gait and runs about as fast on a heavy track as he does on a good one. Star and Crescent made a strong bid in the stretch. It was a bad lot and any one of the first four had license to win. After the race, and while pulling up, Cherry Rose fell. Neither jockey nor horse was hurt.

Overweights—Star and Crescent, 5 pounds; Peg Parks, 4.

Corrected weights—Peg Parks, 100.

Astor, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Branch, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Hosi, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Inspector B—Margo.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third driving and all out. Judging from this race Official is not of much account. Martin's good ride more than the horse's ability is what won. The colt was outrun on the far turn and at the head of the stretch seemed hopelessly beaten. Martin never gave up and through a determined effort managed to win. Prince Blazes had bad luck and ran the best race. He was gaining fast at the finish and had the race been half a furlong further would have won easily. Locust Blossom, off in the rear division, raced all around her field. Her early efforts told on her when the pinch came and she tired badly. Julia Hazel was close up all the way. George Lee's race would hardly do. Throw it out entirely. Sybaris can also do better.

Scratched—Fair Deceiver, 102; Heigh Ho, 105; Apple Jack, 105.

Official, place, 3 to 10. Prince Blazes, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Locust Blossom, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 24:49, 1:02:1, 1:09:1.

Winner—B. f, by Albert—Hoodoo.

Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving hard. Jinks was the best. She got away flying and raced those behind her into submission the first half. This is a filly of phenomenal speed and can go in any kind of going. Hardy Pardee was lucky in getting away and ran a good race. This colt is improving and can be watched from now on. Boney Boy was favored by good fortune to be third. He was stopping and Jolly Roger coming strong at the finish. The latter ran a cracking good race from where he got off. He would surely have been second and might have given Jinks an argument with a better start. Formero was said to be in good condition and there was a heavy lay on him. The colt was bumped and jostled and had bad luck, but did not run anywhere near his eastern form. Souchon evidently dislikes the track. She showed little or no speed.

Scratched—Espionage, 111; Lucille Bramble, 103.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Duke—The Wraith.

Post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Con Reagan; won whipped out; second and third were driving. Amy Wade was best as the race was run. Braw Lad set an extremely slow pace and the filly clearly outstripped him through the stretch. Had Reiff gone on about his business with Braw Lad he might have won. The colt was rank and was fighting for his head all down the back stretch. Tranby ran to his notch and Prosecutor raced above his recent one. Cant Dance did not do nearly as well as his last out. Thorpe, in trying to get a running start with Con Reagan, was caught in the netting and whatever chance the horse had was ruined.

Scratched—Swordsmen, 108; Trixie C., 105.

Time, 26:1, 51:1, 1:17:1, 1:44:1.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Teuton—Lady O'Fallon.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth driving also. Tonto outgamed Millie M at the end. He was well ridden throughout. Turner was perhaps a little overconfident on Millie M. The filly looked a sure winner at the head of the stretch and the boy was laughing at those behind him. Tonto's rush the last sixteenth was unexpected. Queen Safie, poorly ridden, ran a good race. She was badly messed about down the back stretch and made up a lot of ground the last three furlongs. The edge has evidently been taken from Winslow's speed by his recent hard races in deep mud. Treeby and Pitfall showed early speed and tired badly at the end.

Tonto, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10. Millie M, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Queen Safie, show, 4 to 5.
